A Note From Your President

I'm back (although some may wonder if I really left). I know it was just last month that I signed off as president of our great lodge. At the time, I assumed this month's column would be my inaugural column as the editor of Kol Echad.

It seems logistics have forced FHL to postpone our installation until the fall. Therefore, I will remain your president for another few months. In the process, I will be setting a lodge record: the first president to serve longer than two consecutive years.

It seems like forever since I was editor of this wonderful publication. So much has happened since I signed off as editor to assume the presidency, two years ago.

At the time, some felt that it would be best if I did not sit as president and editor at the same time. In retrospect, I feel it was the right decision.

For those who may not be aware this is my third time I have signed on as editor of our lodge bulletin.

The first was 14 years ago when I joined the lodge and worked under another Jeff Rosen (I was Jeff #2). The second time came 10 years ago when a motor vehicle accident forced me to relinquish this post before I picked up my pen a year later.

Unlike years gone by, where Kol Echad was the sole effort of one person, creating the bulletin is now a real team effort.

I will continue collecting, collating and formatting Kol Echad to create the final finished product, while Harvey will ensure advertising is up to date and that the bulletin is sent out in a timely manner. At the same time, Sandy Gordon and Julie Shuter, our print/production representative at Baycrest Centre (where Kol Echad is printed), will do a final proof and get the bulletin printed.

Of course, Sandy, as well as our next president Bonnie Kates, and Nate Salter will continue to provide you with interesting and relevant columns.

So is everything set and ready to go? Not by a long shot!

The only way this bulletin will thrive and continue to prosper is through everyone's contributions.

If you have something interesting to share with your fellow lodge members, please send it in and we will make every effort to include it.

We are also interested in increasing our advertising base. This past year we added new ads to our print version of Kol Echad. We also began to accept advertising for our award-winning Web site. One banner on our site links directly to your own, increasing the possibility that more people will see it.

After a two-year absence, I am thrilled to be coming back as editor of our bulletin. I promise to deliver nothing but the best in the coming months.

Shalom

Jeff Rosen

P.S. I urge everyone to come out to our budget meeting in June to help set priorities for the coming year. It is by far one of the most important meetings we hold all year.
